

YEDA Proxy Coach Form

Updated July 2021

Please send in along with the entries to the show secretary

As a reminder, using a proxy coach for any show must adhere to all of the following rules:

R3.04 Proxy Coach

If a team coach on record cannot attend a show date, it is the responsibility of the coach who cannot attend the event to align a proxy coach for their riders. If this is not done before the show, the riders will not be allowed to compete in the event. The absent coach must file a fully completed proxy coach form with the show secretary, preferability when entries are sent in. Form must be received by Show Secretary prior to the competition date.

- A - The Proxy coach MUST be a YEDA Coach Member in good standing for the current show season.
- B - Proxy coach can only proxy coach one additional team at a show.
- C - Proxy coach can proxy coach a maximum of 10 rides per show day. If an assistant coach is present for the absent coach, then the proxy coach can coach a maximum of 20 rides.
- D - All financial agreements must be mutually agreed upon before the show.
- E - The Proxy coach agrees to equally and fairly coach the riders agreed upon. This includes being the representative during the horse draw, assisting with mounting, and requesting a re-ride if needed.
- F - The Proxy coach is NOT responsible for providing horses for the riders. The Proxy coach cannot offer to provide horses for the riders.
- G - All Proxy Coached riders must rent rides from the event.
The absent coach has communicated to their riders of the arrangement.
- H - All YEDA Proxy coaches must meet the requirements set forth in sections R3.01.
